of

CONCORDIA ACADEMY
PORTLAND, OREGON

To the Graduates of 1950:

As you approach the completion of your high school program at Concordia, your class may well feel a distinct sense of achievement. In the 45-year history of Concordia Academy, no class has done more for this school—in terms of spiritual leadership, of building student morale, and of enhancing the fine reputation of Concordia.

I am very glad indeed that, for most of you, Commencement Day will not mean farewell to Concordia. We look forward to welcoming you back to our campus this fall as the first class in our new Junior College department. Thus, Concordia will continue to equip you for the career of Christian service which most of you have chosen for your life's work. And you, in turn, will continue to shape the character and traditions of this student body from the vantage point of increasing maturity and spiritual insight.

During these years you have grown with Concordia. And you have helped Concordia to grow—inwardly as well as outwardly. That is why we are grateful to the Class of 1950.

Senior Class Will

We, the senior class of 1950, being of sound mind, and unsound English grades, hereby bequeath the following to the students and faculty of Concordia Academy, Portland, Oregon.

I, Daryl Wildermuth, will my toni set to Arthur G. Wahlers.

I, Wesley Visser, will my appendix operation to Larry Kniep so he can miss a few more days of school.

I, Paul Sylwester, will my chemistry apron to my lil' brother Ted; may he have many experiments in the future.

I, Rolland Suelzle, will my silk ties to "T. Texas Perkins;" you can hear them better than his harmonica.

I, Dick Spray, will my cracked-up airplanes to Goedel; may he have fun repairing them.

I, Leroy Schulz, will my truck driver's cap to Muhly; two hats are better than one.

I, Roy Streufert, will my bicycle to Prof. Stuenkel.

I, Larry Schwarz, will my pitching ability to Joe Harper.

I, Blaine Moe, will my ash trays full of cigarettes to Paul Hein.

I, Len Mietzner, will my way with girls to Earl Hunt.

I, Gene Merz, will my ability to stop smoking to Don Freeman.

I, Roger Krinke, will my ability to stay out late "cause I can sleep over at my uncle's," to George Battermann.

I, Luther Kriefall, will all my unused books to that worm (book worm), Leon Gogl.

I, Paul Krueger, will all my campus work to Jim Folsom.

I, Robert Kellerman, will my ability to get girls and then have to leave them to Royce Heckendorn.

I, Leroy Hatz, will my physique to shorty John Grant.

I, Carlton Frice, will my only junior credit to Hillman Fischer.

I, Fred Englert, will my fast ball to Columbia Prep (Heh, heh).

I, Dave Dorpat, will my American Problems book to Bob Carlson to use in English class.

I, Walter Czarnetzki, will my tenor voice to Ivan Debban.

I, Duane Brunette will, never pay my "C" club dues.

I, Dave Becker, will my way of walking to Roy Schroeder.

I, Allen Aprille, will my appetite to Mr. Spoor.

To the Freshmen we leave the consolation that they will be Sophomores next year.

To the Sophomores we give our good looks; they need them.

To the Juniors we leave our empty seats in the hope that they will be broad enough (mentally) to fill them.

To the dining hall staff we leave our thanks for the delicious food and healthy atmosphere that prevails in the dining hall.

To the faculty we leave.
